

Nicole Clawson - Treasurer

Nicole is the Manager of Youth Services for the St. Louis County Library. She has been an advocate for youth services and early literacy since graduating with a Master of Library and Information Science degree from University of Illinois in August of 2000. After beginning her career in the Reference department, she moved into Young Readers Service and then into her current position of Manager of Youth Services at St. Louis County Library.

